

AUTHOR'S SUPERVISION OF THE DESIGNER

Job Description:

- Reports to the Chief Project Engineer and provides regular reporting.
- During participation at the construction site, the Author's Supervisor is subordinated to the Project Coordinator and the Project Construction Engineer, to whom they also provide regular reporting.

Work Activities and Responsibilities:

- Resolves project collisions with other disciplines in coordination with technical or construction supervision;
- Approves technical execution of additional and extra works;
- Participates in control days as required by the Client or the Technical Construction Manager;
- Reviews as-built drawings and performs so-called red mark-ups;
- Oversees work execution according to approved implementation documentation and approves any necessary changes;
- Presence on-site is ensured as per construction needs.